五、閱讀測驗

1. A new student came to our class recently (最近), and I noticed that she was very shy. Her name was Rachel. She didn't talk to many people, and when the teacher asked her to speak in class, she seemed very embarrassed (尴尬的). She always stayed away from the other classmates and looked quite lonely.

One day, I walked up to her and introduced myself. I welcomed her to the school and asked her questions about her life. I tried to be as friendly as possible while I was asking her about her family, hobbies, and other things she liked.

After a while, she began to relax and ask me some questions, too. At lunchtime, we sat together and continued our talk. She was actually (其實) not that shy, and she also had a great sense of humor (幽默). She told me that she was just nervous about being a new student in school.

I'm very glad that I went to talk with Rachel. She is a really nice person, and we share some interests. I think I have made a very good friend.

(1) ( ) This passage mainly talks about _____.

(A) a new student's first day in class

(B) the ways to make more friends

(C) an experience of making a new friend

(D) an introduction of a new student

(C) She asked many questions. (D) She showed her sense of humor.

(3) ( ) What happened to Rachel after the writer talked to her?

(A) She began to relax. (B) She looked quite lonely.

(C) She seemed embarrassed. (D) She became more nervous.

答案:(1)C (2)B (3)A

2. My classmates and I are quite happy because we are about to graduate from junior high school. We are going to be senior high school students soon, and the graduation is like a big celebration. However, in all of the happiness, there is also a little bit of sadness.

We will start high school next semester, and many of us will be going off to different schools. Some of my closest junior high school friends will not go to the same senior high school with me, and I am afraid that I will never see them again. They also feel the same way as I do.

Then, I made a promise to those friends. I told all of them that even if we can't see each other in school daily every day, we can still keep in touch. We promised one another that we will chat online and try to meet in person sometimes. We will at least contact one another every few weeks and never lose touch.

I am very excited about the future, and I look forward to experiencing the new life in senior high school. Even though some of my closest friends won't be there with me, we will stay in touch. I know they'll always be there for me, and our friendships will last forever.

(1) ( ) According to the passage, the writer is about _____ years old.

(A) Fifteen. (B) Eighteen. (C) Twelve. (D) Seven.
