答案: (1)B (2)B (3)A (4)C

2. If you feel bored with the same food day after day and like to try something different, you can go to the biggest and most famous night market in Taipei—the Shilin Night Market. It is popular because of its delicious but inexpensive food.

When you are in the night market, you will find everyone there is eating. Many people have something on a stick (籤) or in a plastic bag (塑膠袋). Even though the food is not on the plate, it still tastes delicious. There is a great amount of special Taiwanese food at the Shilin Night Market. What do you want to start with? You can taste some fish ball soup, or you can bite into a small bun wrapped in large bun. You must not be afraid to try new things. If you're scared to try something new, you may never find out how yummy stinky tofu or pearl milk tea tastes. These are all special Taiwanese foods that you can't miss.

If you want to try some different food, the Shilin Night Market is certainly a food paradise (天堂). It's possible that you can't try everything on your first visit—or even your tenth, since there is too much food waiting for you to give a try.
